

La Ropa

Key Vocabulary

Key Facts:

- Recognise and recall from memory 21 items of clothing in Spanish
- Know the “ar” verb present tense conjugation of the verb “llevar” to say what you or someone else is wearing.
- Know the possessive adjective “my” in Spanish.

Possible activities:

- Word level activities such as crosswords and word searches.
- Reading and listening activities to determine what clothes the person is wearing.
- Scaffolded sentences to allow children to describe what they wear in various scenarios.
- Extended sentence final activity to say what I would pack in my suitcase to practise using the possessive adjective “my”.

It would help to know:

- The colours in Spanish
- Nouns have a gender which impacts the other words in the sentence e.g. the spelling of the adjective.
- The difference between the definite (el, la, los, las) and indefinite articles (un, una, unos, unas)
- Weather vocabulary
- The days of the week

Unos pantalones	A pair of trousers
Un traje de baño	Swim wear
Un suéter	A jumper
Una camiseta	A t-shirt
Un abrigo	A coat
Un vestido	A dress
Una blusa	A blouse
Una corbata	A tie
Una bufanda	A scarf
Una falda	A skirt
Una chaqueta	A jacket
Una camisa	A shirt
Una gorra	A cap
Unos guantes	A pair of gloves
Unas botas	A pair of boots
Unas medias	Socks/tights
Unas sandalias	A pair of sandals
Unas gafas	Sunglasses
Unos pantalones cortos	A pair of shorts
Unos zapatos	A pair of shoes
Unos calcetines	A pair of socks.