Personal information

Personal information

I would recommend definitely not sharing, but it's all information in my opinion

Could be dangerous

You shouldn't tell people where you live or your address because it could be harmful

Cyber bullying

Do not share your personal information it
could be dangerous

Fake news

Is something dangerous and something you should not post it could even scare people

I recommend not sharing fake news

If someone sending you a quest to a game that you don't know, would you accept it?

Would you leave it and tell her trust her adult?

Correct

Wrong
